

Archery Club Accepts Three New Members at Meet

Three new members were accepted into the Tejas Archery Club at the regular meeting of that organization at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Krause, 1501 Sixteenth, last night.

New members are Mr. and Mrs. W. Atherton and William Bluntzer.

Nat B. Lay, former research engineer for the Ben Pearson Archery Co., Pine Bluff, Ark., spoke on archery. Lay and A. P. Johnson, Mission, Texas, will be on hand for the monthly semi-finals at the club range on Shell Road Sunday, according to Charles Herschbach, publicity chairman.

Johnson holds several archery championships, Herschbach said.

The club also adopted target and field rules and appointed Ralph Krause as field captain in charge of future tournaments.

Gladys Barr and returned in mid-Houston meeting.

Newest and since state, the local Breakfast Club replace awards, Mrs. Theirs was judged book and they a plaque for having est. contribution cancer fund—a ne of Credit Women club staged a bar to raise its conti

Sir Clive, Brit Diplomat, D

FOREST ROW, land, May 14. (P-ry Clive, 70, former sador to Japan, a yesterday at his l

Sir Robert entered service in 1902, s

Kent &

PHOTOGR

Credit Women's Board